

CUP21 9.42/22

JULY 21, 1760.

To be S O L D, by Elizabeth Chancellor,

Just arrived at the HOT-WELLS,
From her LACE WAREHOUSE in Dukestreet, St James's,
(The Importer from Abroad)

Now at Mr. MITCHEL's, Taylor,
Opposite Vauxhall Gardens, behind Dowry-Square, near the Adam and Eve.

ALL Sorts of Bruffels Point, and Bruffels Lappet Heads, from six Guineas a Pair to fifty or a hundred; with Minuenet Lappets, Mechlin Lace, and great Choice of Point, Bruffels, and Bath Lace; also great Choice of the newest Fashion Minuenet Lace, together with Minuenet for Caps, Ruffles, and Aprons; likewise Choice of Buckinghamshire black and grey Lace; with all Sorts of Lace and work'd Ruffles for Gentlemen.

With Minuenet Ruffles ready made for Gentlemen, from Half a Guinea to two Guineas a Pair; likewise Bruffels, Mechlin, and Point Ruffles, quite compleat for Gentlemen, from two to sixteen Guineas; also all Sorts of the newest Fashion Minuenet Caps, from Half a Guinea to a Guinea and a Half.

N. B. I am the Maker of Bath and Buckinghamshire Laces, of which Ladies may have any Pattern made in a very short Time: and also make Minuenet Laces, and have new Patters every Month at my Warehouse.

* * I beg Leave to acquaint the Gentlemen and Ladies at Bristol, that they may, by directing a Line as above, be waited on at their Houses on the shortest Notice.

I am well provided with a great Choice of new Fashion Laces, Points, Mechlins, &c. and, as an Encouragement to my Friends, I purpose selling Needle-point Lace as cheap as corded Mechlins. All Sorts of long and short Trolly Hoods, Minuenet and Trolly Fiffue Handkerchiefs, double and single, from Half a Guinea to six Guineas a Piece.

All the above Articles will be sold here on the same Terms as at my Warehouse in London.

†§† Wanted immediately, An Apprentice in the Lace and Millenary Business, well recommended. Money will be required.

BRISTOL, PRINTED BY E. WARD, OPPOSITE THE POST-OFFICE.